Breaking Chains – Part 1

June 11th, 2017

Exodus 34:6-7

6 The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, 7 keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation." ESV

Hebrews 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us (our part) also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith,.....

Forgiveness:

- Phase One – Begin to build an attitude of love.

1 John 4:20-21 If anyone boasts, "I love God," and goes right on hating his brother or sister, thinking nothing of it, he is a liar. If he won't love the person he can see, how can he love the God he can't see? The command we have from Christ is blunt: Loving God includes loving people. You've got to love both.

- Phase Two - Start the process of letting go of the past.

*"A man's wisdom gives him patience; it is to his glory to overlook an offense."
(Proverbs 19:11, NIV)*

- Phase Three – Begin to make room for the reconstruction of the relationship.

Luke 17:3-4 "If you see your friend going wrong, correct him. If he responds, forgive him. Even if its personal against you and repeated seven times through the day, and seven times he says, 'I'm sorry, I won't do it again,' forgive him." (Msg)

A Connected Issue: Forgiveness does not mean that one should automatically trust them.

- Phase Four – Begin to make room for a new future.

Phil. 1:9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ESV

- Phase Five – We move toward reaffirming the relationship.

PS 92:4 For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.
