Faith

Which statement most closely describes what your relationship with Jesus usually looks like?

- I don't want anything to do with God or the Church
- I haven't really put my trust in Jesus yet, but I am curious about God and Christians
- God helps me out in emergencies, and I go to church sometimes because my parents make me, but otherwise I try to live the best life I can on my own
- It's okay, I know Jesus loves me, but I only really feel like that around other Christians.
- I come to church and youth group because I like my friends here, I also think hearing about Jesus will help me grow and live a good life
- Our relationship still isn't perfect, but my relationship with Jesus is at the heart of who I am. I want other students to come to youth group with me so that they can hear how to have and grow in a relationship with Jesus
- My relationship with Jesus & the Church is the most important thing in my life. I am taking steps to intentionally meet with my peers on my own time to help them wrestle with questions about life, dating, our identity & purpose, all in light of Jesus, and am trying to develop a plan for me to help them grow spiritually.

What is one thing you would like to see happen in your life this year to help you grow closer to Jesus: (please explain)

A question about life / faith that I have is: _____

A question about relationships (with friends, parents, dating, and more) that I have is:

I would like to serve in the church and/or youth group by:

(Ex: helping lead games, lead worship or announcements, joining the Infuse Ministry team...)
