

STUDY QUESTIONS

Have you ever had a difficult time believing God's promises? Tell about a specific time- and how did God bring you through? How did He show you He was faithful in the end?

Read Genesis 50:4-26 and Exodus 1:1-7. How does the story of Exodus continue the narrative from Genesis? Why does the author make this critical bridge between the two stories?

Read Genesis 1:26-28; 12:1-9, 28:10-22; 35:9-15. How have all of these promises started to be fulfilled in Ex. 1:1-7? When these promises were given, did things go well right away- or not so much? Why or why not? How could this prepare the readers for what is to come in the next few verses? How can it encourage us when we hear or realize or remember God's promises?

Read Genesis 1:7-14. How (and why) do things start to go badly for Israel? Is God still present or not? And how are these "new kings of Egypt" set up essentially as enemies towards Him and His people? How are they reminiscent of the evils and the enemies that we face even today in light of God's promises and plans for us?

AROUND THE TABLE

Have you ever wondered why bad things happen to people who love and believe in God? What can we learn through painful circumstances, even when God's good plan is still happening (or maybe seems like its not)? Read Exodus 1:1-14 and discuss what this must have felt like for the Israelites waiting for God's promises. Pray: Ask God to help your family to remember and hold to His promises even when things feel rough or rocky along the way.
