

STUDY QUESTIONS

When did you last say “no” to a request from someone? Why? What about to God? Again, why? What often stops you from saying “yes” to God’s leading?

Read Exodus 3:16-22. What were the main tasks God was assigning to Moses? Would these have been easy things for you to trust and do, or not?

Read Exodus 4:1-17. What were the 3 main reasons why Moses felt that he could not (and would not) do what God had told him to do? What was God’s response for each argument? Which of these three do you relate with most? Why might different tasks from God seem easier or harder at different times in life?

Read 4:18-26. How was Moses covered? Why are these “coverings” important for us when we obey God today too?

AROUND THE TABLE

Ask everyone, “Is it always easy to obey God? Why or why not? What doubts or fears might get in your way?” Read Exodus 3:16-4:17. What task did God call Moses to do- and what were the fears that nearly stopped him from obeying? Pray: Have each person share what they feel God is calling them to do right now & what might be stopping them. Pray through those things for each other!
