

STUDY QUESTIONS

Do you keep and look through photo albums or books? Why is it important to remember those moments? How do they effect you when you look back?

Reflect on Exodus 11:1-12:13. Why has the story focus moved from Pharoah and Egypt to Moses & Aaron & Israel?

Read Exodus 12:14-20. Why would it be important to turn this event into a "memorial" feast? What do you think the phrase "a statute forever" means? What symbolism do you see present?

Why is the Feast of Unleavened Bread so important that those who don't keep it would be "cut off" from Israel?

Read Exodus 12:21-28. What was the "rite" and the "service" they were supposed to continue? And how does the "family element" effect this feast?

AROUND THE TABLE

What are some of your favorite family memories? How do you remember them? How do you feel when you do? Read Exodus 12:14-28. What big event was God about to do for the families of Israel? How did God want them to remember the event? Why would they? Discuss & pray how we can remember what God has done for us and grow in our relationship with Him as a family!
